TO INDICT TWO CAPTAINS?

Grand Jury Said to Have Decided Against Devery and Stephenson.

DOUBTFUL ABOUT

Witness-Rooms Crowded with Officials and Privileged Persons.

SUBPOENAS ARE DEMANDED.

Sullivan's De lar" "Pull" Admitted Him Instantly.

It is known upon the best of authority tast the Grand Jury has considered the cases against Police Capts. Devery, Stephenson and ex-Police Capt. Cross, and that they have decided to find indictments against Devery and Stephenson, out are undecided about Cross.

They have considered the cases quite felly, but were examining a few other tnesses this morning.

the Grand Jury is proceeding with great find any indictments unless the evidence tainly bring about their conviction when they come to trial in the Criminal Courts. Acting Capt. O'Toois, of the Leonard street station and Capt. Berghold, of the Eldridge street station, were before the Grand Jury this morning, but they were there on illegal registration cases. There were also a great many witnanded in from the police-courts for various offenses, and, in consequence, the witness-room of the Grand Jury was District-Attorney Battle's office.

Timothy "Dry Dollar" Sullivan walked into the witness room of the Grand Jury, although he had no subpoena. Other men, who do not happen to have a Tammany "pull," were stopped at the door and told that they could not pass without a subpoens.

ed Speedway Architect.

After Leaving in a Rage.

The Park Board meeting called for to day to appoint a landscape architect to supervise the work on the Harlem River speedway, developed a rumpus at the utset. When Commissioner Tappen offered a resolution appointing Frederick Law Olmsted as architect, Commissioner Bell moved that Calvert Vaux be put in charge of the work in connection with Olmsted. Commissioner Tappen and President Clausen opposed this, the latter saying that Vaux was inimical to the Board, and would not work in harmony with it. A war of words followed. Commissioner Bell said:
"You may count me absent from the meeting."
Clausen shouted after him: "If you leave here, the responsibility for failure to appoint a landscape architect rests on you."

commissioner Bell replied: "I will vote for no resolution that does not name Mr. Vaux."

Then he left and the Board adjourned for half an hour, and at the end of that time Commissioner Bell returned and took his seat, saying: "I am now ready to vote."

time Commissioner Bell returned and took his seat, saying: "I am now ready to yote."

President Clausen ordered the resolution read and Commissioner Bell said "yea," with Clausen and Tappen. He did not explain his sudden change of mind, but told reporters he would have something to say later. It is said that he had a consultation with Ex-Park Commissioner Dana, the faithful friend of Calvert Vaux, after he left the meeting, and that Dana advised him to drop Vaux and vote for Olmsted.

After the resolution was passed President Clausen formally announced that Prederick Law Olmsted was chosen as the landscape architect to supervise the Speedway work. The salary will be fixed later by the Board.

When this business had been settled the Board called on James D. Leary, contractor for the first section of the speedway, to answer the charge made in letters received by the Board, that he employed allens on the work. Leary indignantly denied the charge and the matter was dropped.

After Officer Adolph Klein had been retired on a pension the Board went into executive session.

Ex-Commissioner Paul Dana said, after the meeting, that he considered the action of the Board as a victory for him. but thought the Board had insulted Calvert Vaux by refusing to include his name in the resolution appointing Olmstead.

BREAD SHOULD BE CHEAPER. Fricks of the Trade Exposed by the Agricultural Department. WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.-The Agricultural Department has given out a bulletin on "the cost of bread" taken crowded and overflowed into Assistant from the forthcoming report of Prof. W. O. Atwater on the nutritive value of foods. It says: "In practice 100 pounds of flour will make from 133 to 137 pounds of bread, an average being about 136 pounds. Flour such as is used by bakers is now purchased in the Eastern States at not over $4 per barrel. This would make the District-Attorney Fellows greeted "Dry cost of flour in a pound of bread about Dollar" Sullivan effusively in the wit- one and one-half cents. Allowing onehalf cent for the shortening and sait, which is certainly very liberal, the ma-what the Third District leader was doing in the witness-room was a mystery which he did not care to have explained to the public.

Policeman Conrad Schellenberger, of the Eldridge street station, who was indicted last Friday for an assault upon Street, gave ball in $2,000 to-day in the Court of General Sessions. His bonding man was Henry Hollman, of 245 Bowery, Schellenberger was released at noon and went back to his station house to report for duty.

which is certainly very liberal, the materials for a pound of bread would not cost more than two cents.

"The average weight of a number of shipments of ten-cent loaves purchased in Middletown, Conn., was one and one-tourth pounds. This makes the prices to the consumer eight cents per pound. The price of bread and the size of the loaf are practically the same now as when flour cost twice as much."

THOMAS E. BURKE.

The scene of the tragedy was the old Burke shanty at South Beach, which stands about a hundred feet from highwater line and almost opposite Hoffman Island.

It was built of old driftwood and pieces of wreckage, and has been for years an object of curiosity and one of the sights of the neighborhood.

Burke had squatted on the land forty years ago, and claimed a tract several miles in length along the shore, partly by reason of long and undisturbed possession and partly through a grant made at the beginning of the century by the Queen of England.

For eleven years he has been fighting in the courts to make his title good, and has become involved in numerous feuds and quarrels on account of the lawsuits.

The old man always claimed that young Bergman was identified with and friendity to the parties that were opposed to him, and he bitterly objected to his daughter's marriage.

GOLDBERG VS. HOFFMAN.

People's Party Man To-Day.

The Board of Police Commissioners will hold a special meeting this afternoon, to consider protests of the Asembly candidates of the Tammany and sembly candidates of the Tammany and People's party organizations in the Sixth Assembly District.

Sammel Manheim, who had been nominated for Assemblyman by the Peoples party handed in his declination Saturday. His name, it is said, had been withdrawn by the campaign committee. A certificate of substitution was filed, nominating Benjamin Hoffman, who is the regular Tammany nominee. Saturday, another certificate nominating Maurice Goldberg, was filed with Chief Clerk Kipp.

It is claimed that Hoffman's nomination was irregular, in that the Committee had not been delegated with the power by the nominating convention to fill vacancies on the ticket.

Therefore, it was decided that all invitations to speak should be decilned.

At Democratic State headquarters this morning Chairman John Boyd Thacher said there would not be any election, if the Executive Committee could prevent it. The Committee, he said, did not approve of speeches on the eve of election, and, therefore, it was not probable that Senator Hell would speak in this city next Monday night, as had been suggested. The interrogation as to whether President Cleveland had yet given any sign of his approval of Mr. Hill's candidacy was received by Mr. Thacher as if i was a painful matter to discuss.

Police Board Must Print His Name on Empire Ballots.

Justice Barrett, in Supreme Court Chambers, to-day, issued a mandamus compelling the Police Commissioners to print the ballots of Lawrence P. Minguey, candidate for Alderman, on the Empire State Democracy ballots in the Eighteenth Assembly District.

The Corporation Counsel, in opposition, argued that seventy-six of the Zonames subscribed to the paper necessary to make the party a lawful or sail and pencil. George W. Green, attorney to Minguey, argued that the law holds that a lead pencil signature is legal in other matters, and, therefore, why not in the sone at hand. Justice Barrett sustained him.
